

Doe Mountain Geocaching

assigned ID code	number	coordinates	Name	Description
GCA25ET	1	36°27.427' N, 81°50.638' W	Doe, a Deer	Located on Harbin Hill road off of highway 67 near Mountain City. The difficulty to access is easy and a very short hike from the parking area
GCA25G3	2	36°27.320' N, 81°50.635' W	Bridge to the woods	Located at Doe Mountain this cache is short easy hike from the adventure center on trail 112. The cache is located near the foot bridge across a small brook.
GCA25HA	3	36°27.295' N, 81°50.935' W	Hole in the Ground	This Cache is a short hike from the parking area at Doe Mountain. The location for this geocache is a former pit-mining site where generations past dug to see if there were minerals on the mountain. Now the "hole in the ground" has been reclaimed by nature and has trees and rhododendron growing in and around it.
GCA25J0	4	36°26.900' N, 81°50.523' W	Trials Playground	A medium hike or short ride from Doe Mountain Parking area to get to the Trials Parking Area. The Geocache is a small waterproof container located near the base of one of the man-made features. Accessible via trails on foot, bicycle, moto, quad, or side-by-side.
GCA25K9	5	36°26.992' N, 81°51.683' W	Chair Hill	1.2 mile hike from the parking at Doe Mountain on trail 10. This is a powerline corridor and there is an old folding chair located at the top of the hill which locals have deemed chair hill. There is a trail that parallels the powerline for easier access to vicinity on foot or via bicycle.
GCA25KY	6	36°25.772' N, 81°51.725' W	Kettle on Foot	Located on Doe Mountain this cache is a moderate to long hike from the parking area and is located on the Kettlefoot Trail which is open to hikers and bikes. The terrain is slightly demanding if you take the trail from the bottom so come prepared, or you can choose to access it from the top via motorized trails near the Kettlefoot Tower.
	7			Coming Soon
	8			Coming Soon
	9			Coming Soon
	10			Coming Soon
GCA25N1	11	36°25.838' N, 81°51.800' W	Grouse Ridge	Located on Doe Mountain this cache is accessible via hiking trail or OHV trails and features an observation deck looking out to the Iron Mountain Range. This site is easiest to access via motorcycle, quad, or side-by-side but there is also a hiking trail that gets you to this point. Expect mountainous terrain and come prepared with plenty of water and snacks for the 6 mile hike round trip
GCA25NY	12	36°26.090' N, 81°50.782' W	Flint Knob	This cache is hidden near the viewpoint of Flint Knob on Doe Mountain. This is easiest to access via motorized trail 21.

GCA25RE	13	36°25.600' N, 81°51.995' W	Kettlefootin'	The Kettlefoot tower is accessible on foot from the Kettlefoot Trail or via bicycle, motorcycle, quad, or side-by-side on motorized trail #1. The tower is a historical site and has views into 3 states. The Geocache is hidden in the vicinity of the tower. If you decide to hike up there expect mountainous terrain and be prepared for roughly 8 miles round trip.
GCA265A	14	36°25.080' N, 81°52.438' W	Turkey Top	This beautiful observation deck is in the heart of Doe Mountain and is best accessed via side-by-side, quad, motorcycle, or bicycle. If you were to hike in it would be 8-10 miles round trip depending on parking location so come prepared for mountainous terrain and pack plenty of water and snacks. This cache is located near the observation deck.
GCA2669	15	36°24.810' N, 81°53.330' W	Potter's Truckstop	Located near Potters Truckstop atop Doe Mountain this geocache is best accesible via motorized trail 1 with parking at Doe Mountain or the Morfield Branch parking area. Potters Truckstop is distinguished by a small wooded picnic area, and a signage. This geocache is best accessed via side-by-side, quad, motorcycle, or bicycle. If you did hike from either parking area please expect a 7-10 mile trek on shared use motorized trails and carry plenty of water and snacks.
GCA2678	16	36°24.553' N, 81°54.128' W	Chimney Rocks	It is a short steep hike on trail 126 off of motorized trail 26 and gets you to spectacular rock features known as Chimney Rock. You will want to use caution as chimney rocks is part of a 100' cliff that you are on-top/behind and seeing just the top 25' of rock or so. The trail is best accessed via side-by-side, quad, motorcycle, or bicycle but even then you still have to make the short steep hike to this location. If you plan on hiking there expect mountainous terrain and bring plenty of water and snacks for up to 12 miles of hiking depended on which parking area you use. To access this cache step into the gap of the rock formation where the tree grows and look into the crevasse to your left.